TAFT MAKES BUSY VISIT TO GOTHAM

Strenuous Day Ahead For President at Various Meetings in Progress.

OPENS THE BLIND EXHIBITION

Warm Tribute to New York Association for the Blind—Hundred of Sightless Present — Features of the Day.

New York, April 26.—The plight of the sightless, his pride in the militia and the call of the Hungarian Republican Club brought the President of the United States to New York tonight, invitations from the Associated Press, the Methodist Social Union, and the Aeronautical Society wil keep him here until midnight tomorrow busy with formal and extemporaneous addresses.

Standing tonight on the stage of the Metropoitan Opera House among a group of distinguished guests, incuuding Associate Justice Hughes, of the United States Supreme Court; Governor Dix and Mayor Gaynor, the President touched a button which flashed a light from a large papier mache light house, opening what is said to be largest exhibition of the work of the blind ever held. Mrfi Taft's arrival had been preceded by an organ prelude by Miss Sophie Grabowski, a blind musician, who occupied a front rank among the organists of America. The applause for her work and the ovation to the President kept the great audience clapping and cheering for several minutes.

Among the 3,000 persons at the meeting were hundreds of sightless to whom was denied the spectacle which the great gathering afforded and the marvels of their own handicraft, which were placed on public exhibit.

The President occupied a chair, which was made by a blind upholsterer and to which a delegation of blind people led him. Joseph H. Choate read a letter from United States Senator Gore, the blind statesman of Oklahoma, expressing regret at not being able to attend and praising the work which the association for the blind wa doing.

The President's address was a warm tribute to the New York Association for the blind and a hearty appreciation of the work it is doing for those whose "loss of the sense which enables us to see to read, to rejoice in the rising sun and marvel in the beauty of the setting sun is a deprivation that very thought of which melts our hearts and brings tears to our eyes for those thus afflicted."

He reviewed the history of the movement to "introduce light into the life of the blind," and commended the campaign for proper treatment at birth to prevent ophthalmia neonatorum.

The President declared also that the kindergarten for the blind should be encouraged as "it rescues the poor blind children under the school age from imbecile and idiot asylums and gives them opportunity to show that their minds are not defective, thus saving a number who would otherwise seem hopelessly deficient to become fully developed by the influences of primary and secondary education."

President Taft also spoke a word in favor of more vocational schools for the blind.

Miss Winifred Holt, secretary of the New York Association for the blind moving spirit of the exhibition with whom President Taft had decided earlier in the evening, read a letter from Helen Keller, "the foremost blind woman in the world," saying that the work of the New York Association in turning blind people to profitable employment had opened up what might be termed a new era for the blind.

Miss Holt aid that the association had come in contact with more than 7,000 blind persons and had helped hundreds of them to become telephone operators, barbers, stenographers, cooks and laundresses, wireless telegraph operators, carpenters and salesmen, while many had risen to professional life.

At the exhibition tonight a special demonstration of athletics was given by the boys from the Pennsylvania Institution for the instruction of the blind. President Taft was so much interested in this that he waited after his speech to see what the boys could do.

The President then went to the 71st Regiment Armory, New York National Guard, where he reviewed the men.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the President reached the Cafe Boulevard, where the Hungarian Republic Club dinner was held, and as he was thoroughly hungry, he sat down at once to dinner and amid a deafening ovation.

The incident of honor in connection with the President's visit was the presentation to him at a reception of the military order of foreign wars of a gold jeweled badge representing honorary membership in the order.

IMPORTANT BILLS FOR TODAY

Measure to Increase Membership of House and Apportionment Bill Come Up—Debate on "Free List" Ended.

Washington, April 26.—The Houston bill to increase the House of Representatives to a membership of 433 and apportion the members throughout the States on the basis of the recent Federal census, will be taken up in the House tomorrow. Announcement to this effect was made at the close of today's debate on the free list bill, and it is intimated that the House will dispose of the apportionment bill before the close of tomorrow's session.

The tariff debate today covered broad lines. Mr. Norris, of Nebraska, attacked the combination controlling the Brazilian coffee output, and urged changes in the existing tariff laws which would permit the United States government to break up the control now exercised by the Brazilian combination over the wholesale price and the supply of coffee in the United States market.

Mr. James, of Kentucky, delivered the most stirring Democratic speech in support of the free list measure, replying to the criticisms of the bill made yesterday by Minority Leader Mann, and attacking the Republican policy of protection. Mr. Hobson, of Alabama, also spoke in favor of the measure, pleading for greater consideration for the committee on growing industry, and the development at home of the trade in cotton fabrics now partially monopolized by foreign countries.

Mr. Hamlin, of Missouri, favored the bill. Mr. Sterling, of Illinois, opposed it in a speech in which the merits of the reciprocity bill were again brought in by questions and debate on the floor.

A PROTEST FROM SPAIN.

Follows Assassination of Six Spaniards in Mexico Yesterday.

Mexico City, Mex., April 26.—Spain, through her minister to Mexico, Bernardo de Cologan y Cologan, today made formal protest to the Foreign Office against the assassination of six subjects of King Alfonso, in Puebla, last Monday. He requested the capture and punishment of the assassins.

With this registering of Spain's protest, Mexico now finds herself in diplomatic controversies with three nations as the result of incidents growing out of the revolution. It is not believed, however, that the difficulties with Spain and Great Britain will involve anything more serious than the formal exchange of notes.

Minister De La Barra gave assurances that his country would do all in its power to punish the guilty persons, and expressed his deep regret that such an incident should have occurred, especially since the victims were foreigners and in no way implicated in the fight against the revolutionists.

The Government is not ready to announce the names of the men who will represent the government in the peace conference, and no statement has been made as to where the meeting will be held. There is good reason for believing it will be on Mexican territory. At the Foreign Office the announcement was made this afternoon that the armistice would be extended for five days, and Minister De La Barra expressed the opinion that no further extension would be necessary, since, in his belief, an agreement could be reached within that time.

Rebels Killed Spaniards.

Mexico City, Mex., April 26.—Six Spaniards were shot and killed Monday at the Hacienda Atencingo, in the State of Puebla, by a small band of rebels, following their refusal to contribute 50,000 pesos to the insurgent cause. Atencingo is the hacienda where the rebels some days ago secured a quantity of rifles, considerable ammunition and 25,000 pesos. On account of that loss, the owner of the hacienda, Angel Diaz Rubin, a Spaniard, announced his intention of demanding an indemnity.

The band of rebels on Monday entered a house where nine employees were assembled. The rebels demanded money and were refused. They then attacked the Spaniards with machetes and drove them from the house, crying out: "Run, for we are going to shoot you!"

As they ran, six of the Spaniards dropped, with bullets in their bodies. The reason assigned by the rebels for the onslaught is that a Spaniard gave information of their whereabouts to the authorities, who had been hard-pressing them.

The news of the shooting was received here this morning, and immediately the Spanish minister called at the Foreign Office.

Late Account of Fight.

Douglas, Ariz., April 26.—A letter to an American in Douglas from Mazatlan, the Pacific port of Sinalao, Mexico, received today, gives an account of a battle near Mazatlan a few days ago. According to this letter, the battle was waging at the same time that fighting was going on Agua Preita.

The Federal garrison at Mazatlan had been reinforced with troops from Mexican gunboats. Machine guns also were landed from the warships and on April 17th the garrison marched out southward and encountered the rebel army.

Both forces fought desperately, it was said. The battle raged around Chanetla, five miles south of Mazatlan. At the time the letter was written, 80 wounded Federals had been brought into Mazatlan indicating heavy losses on both sides.

FIGHT IN SENATE NOW BEING WAGED

Activity of Warring Republican Factions Causes Day of Unusual Unrest.

EVERY MOVE WAS BLOCKED

Depends on Action of Progressive Clan This Morning—Democratic Appointments Announced. Caucuses Held.

Washington, April 26.—Following a day of caucuses, conferences, and secret meetings, in which the demands of the progressive Republicans of the Senate were blocked by the regular senators, the two factions tonight are resting on their arms. Whether the fight begun over the demands of the progressives for more appointments to committees of increased importance will be transferred to the open floor of the Senate cnamber rests with a meeting of the progressive cian to be held in the morning. Tonight the progressives are breathing defiance.

The skirmish began in the meeting of the Republican Committee on Committees early in the day. Senator Gallinger, chairman of the committee, reported the list of appointments. Immediately Senator LaFollette objected to the selections, insisting that the progressive senators were being treated "unjustly and unfairly."

As a concession to progressive wing, a change was made in the assignments to permit Senator Bourne to take a place on the Committee on Appropriations. The attempts of the other three progressive members of the committee, LaFollette, Cummins and Bristow, to get places on the committees on Interstate Commerce, Finance and Foreign Relations respectively, were voted down. Considerable feeling shown in the meeting was carried into the caucus.

Those Accepted by Caucus.

Chairman Gallinger gave out a list of the committee appointments, which were later accepted by the caucus. The following appointments as chairmen of the more important committees were announced:

Finance, Penrose, of Pennsylvania; Appropriations, Warren, of Wyoming; Foreign Relations, Cullom, of Illinois; Interstate Commerce, Clapp, of Minnesota; Judiciary, Clark, of Wyoming; Rules, Crane, of Massachusetts; Agriculture and Forestry, Burnham, New Hampshire; Commerce, Frye, of Maine; Military Affairs, Dupont, of Delaware; Naval Affairs, Perkins, of California; Indian Affairs, Gamble, of South Dakota; Privileges, Dillingham, of Vermont; Public Lands, Nelson, of Minnesota; Public Buildings and Grounds, Southerland, of Utah; Territories, Smith, of Michigan; Conservation of Natural Resources, Dixon, of Montana; Education and Labor, Borah; Immigration, Lodge, of Massachusetts; Inter-Oceanic Canals, Brandegee, of Connecticut, and Pensions, McCumber, of North Dakota.

Democratic Appointees.

The new Democratic appointees to five of the principal Senate Committees were given out by Senator Martin, chairman of the Democratic reorganization committee. They are committee on appropriations, Smith, of Maryland and Owen; finance, Williams, Johnson, of Maine, and Kern; foreign relations, Rayner, Clarke, of Arkansas, and Hitchcock; judiciary, O'Gorman, and interstate commerce, Gore.

When the caucus met Senator Cummins urged the appointment of LaFollette to the Interstate Commerce Committee because of his "fitness and seniority" and the naming of Bristow to the Committee on Finance, because of his "capacity for hard work and deep interest," in the subject.

Senator Gallinger replied that the committees already were filled and that it was inexpedient to enlarge them. He added that the progressives had been given all the committee assignments to which they were entitled.

Senator Cummins asked for a separate vote on the two propositions. The motion to place LaFollette on interstate commerce was voted down, 33 to 11.

In the case of Mr. Bristow that motion, too, was lost 31 to 12.

Mr. Cummins immediately gave notice that he reserved the right to carry the question of reconsideration of the votes to the floor of the Senate. Mr. LaFollette went further, however. He declared that he proposed to decide for himself whether he would take into the open Senate not only the question of the votes but also the broader question of the committee appointments.

Immediately after the adjournment of the caucus, the progressive group held a secret conference to decide on their future action, but no decision was reached and the matter went over until tomorrow morning.

MRS. BELMONT GOES TO COURT

Tired of Being Annoyed With Letters and Messages from Dr. Jacola —Says He Admired Rich New York Woman.

New York, April 26.—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont appeared in police court late today and on the promise of Dr. John Jackola, a worker for woman's suffrage, that he would not annoy her further with unwelcome agents, consented that a magistrate's summons for him be dismissed.

Dr. Jackola, who holds degrees from both the University of Washington and the University of Chicago, and until recently was a practicing surgeon at Duluth, Minn, talked freely of the case here today, after reading a statement given out by James McMahon, secretary to Mrs. Belmont. "Dr. Jackola," said Mr. McMahon has paid persistent attentions to Mrs. Belmont for four months. His attentions include repeated attempts to see Mrs. Belmont, the sending of roses with verses enclosed, and a number of notes. A letter he sent last week was the culmination of the matter. Mrs. Belmont decided that the only thing for her to do was to go to the courts.

"I am sorely surprised at Mrs. Belmont's action," said Dr. Jackola, when he had read the statement, "but I should have nothing to say, unless a statement from her had been given out first.

"She received the roses I sent her with my poetry and I have her acknowledgment and thanks in a safety deposit vault."

"In one of your letters, did you address Mrs. Belmont as Divine Goddess?" asked the caller.

"Such an expression may well have been in one of my notes," answered Dr. Jackola, thoughtfully. "I have admired Mrs. Belmont ever since I saw her two years ago when we crossed the Atlantic on the same ship. I thought she was the most remarkable woman I had ever seen and I believed I was privileged as a man to make advances to her. But we did not speak; there was no common friend aboard to introduce us.

"I believe all this would not have happened if the notes I sent Mrs. Belmont had not been opened first by a secretary."

The doctor explained how his admiration led him to seek an introduction to Mrs. Belmont, how he met her secretary, was invited to speak on woman suffrage here, did so, and soon after was presented to Mrs. Belmont. One of the doctor's stanzas follows:

"Permit these adorable roses say,
"Each fragrant pedal keep repeating,
"O Lovlier, sweeter far you than they,
"And sweeter than heartfelt greeting."

DREW ASSAULTED CONSTABLE.

When Warrant Was Served on Detective Burns—Fined by Court.

Indianapolis, April 26. — Walter Drew, of New York, counsel for the National Erectors Association, was fined $1 and costs today in police court on conviction of having assaulted a constable that was seeking to serve a warrant on Detective William J. Burns, charging him with complicity in the alleged kidnapping from this city last Saturday of J. J. McNamara, secretary and treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

Drew forced the constable into an elevator in a hotel yesterday. The fine was suspended by police Judge Collins by whom McNamara had been turned over to a Los Angeles police officer in the extradition proceedings.

Washington, April 26.—The conference of the private interests involved in the potash controversy between the United States and Germany, which is designed to settle the matter will be held at Brussels, on May 15th, if the German government ratifies an agreement to this effect which has been reached between the State Department and the Count Bernstorn, the German ambassador.

WOLGAST RETAINS TITLE AS FIGHTER

"One Round" Hogan Was No Match for Light-Weight Champion of World.

GAVE UP IN SECOND ROUND

Hogan Declares He Will Never Fight Again—First Round Fast and Furious—Jeffries Witness at Ring Side.

New York, April. 26.—Ad Wolgast, of Michigan, stepped from the ring at the Madison Athletic Club tonight still lightweight champion of the world. In the second round of what was to have been a ten round bout he caught "One Round" Hogan, of California, a terrific left swing to the jaw, followed by a heavy right to the wind and instantly had Hogan in distress. A moment more and the latter's seconds threw up the sponge.

Quick to see his advantage, when he had dazed Hogan, Wolgast followed him up relentlessly. He poured in a steady volley of right and left swings to either side of the jaw, rocking Hogan's head, beating down his guard, and driving him helplessly around the ring. Hogan stood swaying from side to side, his hands hanging limp against his thighs, while Wolgast pounded his bloody face and still he could not seem to land the decisive punch. But after a little more than a minute and a half of the second round, Hogan turned his back on the ring and faced his own corner and acknowledged his defeat. He lifted his hand to his seconds and they signalled to the referee that they conceded the fight.

Before entering the ring Hogan announced that if he was beaten decisively he would never fight again. In the first round it seems as if he might prove title to his nickname, "One Round." He found little difficulty in stabbing the champion with an effective straight left and swinging to the jaw with a heavy right hand sweep had Wolgast for a moment rocking and danced against the ropes. But Wolgast's wonderful powers of recuperation came to his rescue. He rallied, fought back again and at the bell he was smiling. When the second round opened he was as fresh as ever. Wolgast's whole fight was at close range. He was willing to take punishment for a chance to get at close quarters, where he could rip in short heavy punches to the wind and close coupled upper cuts.

At the ring side were James Jeffries, former heavy weight champion of the world; Young Griffo, former light weight champion of the world; "Knockout" Brown, Abe Attell, Owen Moran, Freddie Welsh, Tommy Murphy, Packey McFarland and Leach Cross.

In the semi-finals Joe Blum, of Philadelphia, won cleverly from Frankie Fleming, of Canada.

ORDERS ARREST OF BANKERS

Action of Illinois Senate Caused by Refusal to Testify Before Bribery Investigating Committee — For Contempt.

Springfield, Ill., April 26.—By a vote of 40 to 7, the Illinois Senate tonight ordered the arrest of Edward Tilden, George M. Benedict and William C. Cummings, of Chicago, and their appearance before the Senate to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt.

The alleged contempt consists in the refusal of the three men, who are bankers, to submit as evidence before the Senate Committee that is investigating bribery, the bank records of their customers. It has been alleged that these bank books might prove some of the stories told of money said to have been subscribed towards the election of William Lorimer as United States Senator.

Under oath all three have denied any knowledge of any such funds and have sworn that their accounts show nothing bearing on the subject. They pleaded that to show the bank accounts would be unjust to the customers.

The question of contempt was argued before the Senate today with the result that the arrest of the men was voted.

CAUSTIC REPLY TO MEYER.

Letter from Congressman Regarding Beers Incident.

Washington, April 26.—In a caustic reply to Secretary of the Navy Meyer today in regard to the Miss Beers incident at the Naval Academy, Representative Korbly, of Indianapolis, announced that he would file with the House Committee on Naval Affairs, copies of the correspondence on the subject between Mr. Meyer and himself, and "refrain from further annoyance to the Navy Department as to this incident."

"It is well known that many young women take employment as nurse-girls," wrote Mr. Korbly, "and that they contribute out of their earnings to the support of the government. Are these young women to be forever excluded from polite society because they have taken employment? It may be so in England and in the Beacon Hill Annex, but it is not so in the United States."

In closing the congressman observes that he secretary's "solicitude for the young lady would probably have been more appreciated at the time when the embarrassment was not manifestly more your's than her's."

AMERICAN PUBLISHERS MEET.

Important Discussion of Labor Topics Comes Up Today.

New York, April 26.—The annual meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association attended by 215 newspaper publishers from all parts of the country, disposed of a large part of its routine business today in two sessions, clearing the decks for the important discussions on labor topics and print paper problems, which will feature the second day of the meeting tomorrow.

The reports of the directors and officers and of the finance and other committees, were received and President Herman Ridder in closing four years' service as president, deliverd an address in which he suggested many ways in which efficiency in newspaper management could be promoted. Mr. Ridder counseled closer study of methods of operation and the reduction to rules and formulas of the knowledge thus acquired in line with the methods employed in highly organized industries.

The discussions of the day were largely technical, dealing for the most part with advertising problems and ranging from the use of the "flat rate" to the subject of co-operation by newspapers in the promotion of newspaper advertising.

Variety was lent the programme by and address by Francis L. Furgone, publisher of a New York Italian newspaper, who made a plea for fair treatment of the Italian race by newspaper publishers throughout the country. His plea was well received by the newspaper executives.

Tonight the Daily Newspaper Club, of which the executives of half a hundred or more daily newspapers in various parts of the country are members, held its annual dinner at the Waldorf. Tomorrow morning the A. N. P. A. will receive the report of its committee on print paper and discuss wood pulp and paper topics and in the afternoon will take up the labor problem. Presidents of the various international unions are scheduled to address the convention following the report of the special standing committee on labor and the discussion of labor topics. The stockholders will hold their first session tomorrow afternoon and on Friday the annual election of officers will take place.

FOUR LINES FACE REBATING CHARGES

Iron Ore-Carrying Railroads Indicted by Jury at Cleveland, O., Yesterday.

EXPECT SECRET INDICTMENTS

Docking Companies Owned by Railroads Under Same Charges—"Large and Important" Suits Will be Begun.

Cleveland, April 26.—Ten indictments on a total of 107 counts charging four iron ore carrying railroads entering Cleveland with rebating and alleging that two of them were guilty of conspiracy to violate the Elkins law, were returned by the Federal grand jury here late today. Several secret indictments of individuals, whose names are withheld, pending their arrest, also were returned.

The railroads are the Pennsylvania, the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, the Bessemer & Lake Erie and the New York, Chicago & St. Louis (Nickle Plate.)

The indictments returned were:

Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad Company and the Angeline Dock Company, of Ashtabula, O., conspiracy to violate the Elkins Act, one count; same road and the Mahoning & Shenando Dock Company, of Ashtabula, same charge, one count; same road and the Union Dock Company, Ashtabula, same charge, one count; same road and the Ashtabula Dock Company, same charge, one count; same road and Pittsburg & Conneaut Dock Company, same charge, one count.

The Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad Company and the Pittsburg & Conneaut Dock Company, same charge, one count.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, charged with rebating, 35 counts.

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad Company, charged with rebating, 32 counts. The Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad Company, charged with rebating, 28 counts. The New York, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad, charged with rebating, six counts.

District Attorney W. L. Day announced immediately following the filing of the report with United States Judge Killetts, of Toledo, that "large and important suits" would be begun immediately.

The cases are interstate commerce cases, brought to insure that published ore shipping rates are effective. The government will seek to show that the indicted railroads owned docking facilities in Ashtabula, Ohio, and Conneaut, Ohio, harbors; that these were operated by companies which were in effect "hired" by the railroads; that the railroads paid excessive rates to the docking companies for loading and unloading iron ore; that the docking companies paid over a portion of the money thus received to the shippers and that the whole constitutes a conspiracy in violation of the Elkins law.

The penalty for rebating is a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $20,000 with imprisonment not to exceed two years. The penalty for conspiracy is not to exceed a fine of $10,000 and imprisonment not to exceed two years. In addition, under the Elkins law, the government has the right to bring civil suits for three times the amount of money rebated. It would be possible in case of conviction for the government to collect many millions of dollars.

The investigation leading up to today's action of the grand jury was started several months ago. The matter was brought to the Federal grand jury's attention three weeks ago.

District Attorney W. L. Day and his associates, Attorney Joseph G. Fogg and J. S. Bachman, Attorney J. H. Marble, for the Interstate Commerce Commission, and Attorney R. C. Marshall, for the Department of Justice, conducted the case. About 40 witnesses were examined before the grand jury, including officials representing the railroads and ore companies from the lakes to Kentucky.

The government's next step will be the issuance of warrants for the parties named in the secret indictments.

The real sensation of the case, Attorney Day said, would come with the divulging of the names of individuals indicted.

Officials Also Indicted.

Dan R. Hanna, president, and R. L. Ireland, second vice-president of the M. A. Hanna Company, and D. L. McCabe, of Pittsburg, fourth vice-president of the Pennsylvania company, were each indicted on one count, which charges that the Hanna company has an alleged contract with the Pennsylvania company whereby the Hanna company is said to have rebated to shippers profits of the Ohio and Western Pennsylvania Dock Company, a subsidiary concern of the Hanna company. The dock company, which is included in the indictment, leases and operates docks owned by the Pennsylvania company at several Lake Erie ports.

The M. A. Hanna Company is one of the largest iron ore, pig iron, coal and coke concerns in the country.

One of the exhibits before the grand jury shows the alleged payment to the Carnegie Steel Company of $50,111.93, as a part of the earnings of the dock company.

DECIDE SUIT FOR SALVAGE.

Opinion of Judge Waddill in Case of Steamer Maryland.

Norfolk, Va., April 26.—Judge Waddill, in the Federal Court today, rendered the following opinion in the suits for salvage against the steamer Maryland, growing out of the partial destruction of the steamer by fire last December:

"The conclusion reached by the court in this case is that an award should be made as against the steamer Maryland and her cargo of cotton, libeled of nineteen thousand, two hundred and fifty dollars, to be apportioned as between the two of $17,750.00 against the steamer and $1,500.00 against the cotton; and that as between the libels filed by the respective steamers and tugs, that they should recover, as follows:

"The steam tug Baxter and her master and crew, $5,250.00

"The steamer Endeavor and her master and crew, $4,000.00.

"The steam tug McCauley and her master and crew, $3.500.00.

"The steam tug Eccles and her master and crew, $3,250.00.

"The steam tug Helen and her master and crew, $2,250.00.

"The steam tug Wanderer and her master and crew, $1,000.00.

"That the four vessels first named should have judgment against the Maryland alone, and the last two vessels, namely the Helen and the Wandered (each owned by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company), should have a joint judgment for $1,750.00 against the Maryland and $1,500.00 against the cargo of cotton."

CURES PIMPLES EASY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. Hicks Bunting Co. have done the biggest business it ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Wilmington.

It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, ache, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found any form of wound on disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not heal, and its action is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, they will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25 cents. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

If you are tired and worried visit the Grand and forget it. **

ROBBER'S BIG HAUL.

Got $25,000 in Jewelry From Chicago Store Yesterday.

Chicago, April 26.—Four armed robbers held up the jewelry store of Edward Alberti in Milwaukee avenue, in the northwest business quarter, forced Alberti and his clerks into a back room and robbed the store of diamonds and watches, valued at $25,000. The men drove away in an automobile just as a patrol wagon full of policemen, summoned by a passer-by drove up to the store.

Visitors, including customers and Norman Strauss, who entered the store while the robbers were at work, were ordered into the back room at the point of a pistol, robbed and tied up with Alberti and the clerks. Strauss' sample case added $12,000 to the loot. In all, nine persons were tied in the room when the police arrived.

Damage to Crops in State—Old Town of Bloomsbury — New Enterprises for Wilmington—The Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 26. — H. L. Stevens, Esq., here from Warsaw on business connected with the Supreme Court, says that truck, especially of beans and potatoes throughout the trucking belt of Eastern Carolina, has been badly damaged and "set back" by the frosts and the continued cold.

Beans will have to be replanted in many localities. This applies more especially to black soils. The plants on light soil do not damage from frost anything like as easily. He says there is still at least a third of a crop of peaches and an even better promise of apples. The reports here have been that the peaches and apples in all that territory were about killed. It has been claimed also that all the peaches hereabouts were killed two weeks ago but it develops that there is still a half crop or thereabouts that will mature unless there is some especially cold weather ahead. The fact is that the reports from all sections of the State is conflicting as to the status of the fruit yield with indications that there may be still a fair crop of peaches and apples in nearly all sections of the State.

The most serious crop damage just now is that to cotton through retarding germination of seed already in the ground and in the general delay of planting. Corn is being injured in the same way and there are prospects of necessity for replanting on a scale not equaled in many years.

A great company of Raleigh people and many visitors gathered at the corner of Morgan street and Boylan Avenue today at 11 o'clock for the ceremony of the unveiling of a tablet marking the site of the old Revolutionary town of Bloombury and its presentatin to the city of Raleigh by the Bloomsbury chapter, Daughters of the Revolution. In his address W. B. Snow, Esq., reviewed the interesting historical fact that in that immediate locality was the old town of Bloomsbury foundede in 1771 when Wake county was established and that here a portion of Governor Tyron's army camped one while in their movement against the Regulators who precipitated the Revolutionary War. Later the State capital as Raleigh was located close by and has now "swallowed up" the territory that was Bloomsbury. The presentation of the tablet was by Miss Hilliard Hinton, regent of the North Carolina Society of the Daughters of Revolution. The acceptance was by Mayor J. Stan Wynne.

A verdict of $2,500 has been awarded to W. F. Wyatt in his suit against the Seaboard Air Line for $5,000 through the burning of the old Wyatt Tannery near Raleigh. The case has been pending for the past two days. The recovery was on the ground that the fire started from sparks thrown from a Seaboard locomotive. D. L. Ward was here from Newbern prosecuting the case for Mr. Wyatt.

Fred W. Habel has been re-elected chairman of the executive committee for the Democratic party in Raleigh.

The programme of the 10th annual session of the North Carolina Academy of Science to be in session here Friday and Saturday of this week, is completed and includes a large number of special papers on technical papers on personal researches by members of the Academy. The readers of the papers include C. S. Brimley, Collier Cobb, Joseph Hyde Pratt, E. W. Grudger, W. C. Coker, F. L. Stevens, W. C. Norton, J. D. Ives, G. W. Wilson, C. S. Venable, G. M. McNider, W. A. Withers, H. V. Wilson, J. M. Pickel, Geo. W. Lay, Z. P. Metcalf, Jno. F. Lanneau, A. H. Patterson, Hubert Hill, Dr. Chas. H. Herty, A. L. Field. The president of the North Carolina Academy is G. M. McNider, assistant State chemist. The secretary is Burton J. Ray, of Raleigh.

Adjutant General R. L. Leinster, of the North Carolina National Guard, is advised by the War Department that there will be a fourth call the latter part of May for additional officers of the North Carolina Guard to go to the San Antonio camp for camp and maneuver training on the Mexican border.

A good many people here are bginning to feel that much very seasonable time is being lost now for the work of providing the much-needed fire-proof State administration building through the delay in the appointment of the commission to have this work in hand. The names of a number of the Governor's appointees found their way into the newspapers some weeks ago but one or two of the seven required are still tied up. Those known to be on the commission are Gen. J. S. Carr, Durham; J. Elwood Cox, High Point; Ahley Horne, Clayton; W. L. Parsons, Richmond county, and State Senator Rascoe, Bertie county. The bond issue authorized is $250,000. These are to be issued as the money is needed and the issues can be made any time after July 1st by the State Treasurer. He is already casting about for bids for lithographing the bonds but this order, which involves several thousand dollars, will not be placed until the commission is organized and ready to proceed. The same thing applies to the $60,000 bonds authorized for the establishment of a State school for the feeble-minded.

The Newbern Ice Co., filed today an amendment to its charter increasing the capital from $50,000 to $100,000 and extending the period of existence to sixty years. W. B. Blades is president.

The Home Mutual Insurance Association, of Graham, files an amended charter under which it is to conduct its mutual life insurance business. C. C. Thompson and Herbert Holt are among the stockholders.

A charter was issued today for The Wilmington Handle Co., of Wilmington, capital $125,000 by Angus McNeill and others, for general woodworking plant.

The North Carolina Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows will meet in annual session in Winston-Salem, May 9th. The report of the Grand Secretary will show 262 lodges in the State with 16,907 members. During the year seven new lodges were established and two re-organized. F. D. Hackett, of North Wilkesboro, is Grand Master, R. J. Jones, of Wilmington, Grand Treasurer; Marcus Jacobi, chairman of the executive committee, and M. L. Shipman, chairman of the committee on reports and returns.

It develops that Lieutnenant C. A. Boone, of Co. D, 35th North Carolina Regiment, Confederate Army, who is being sought by Chas. E. LeGrand, veteran of the Federal Army, for the purpose of restoring to him a Bible found on the battlefield around Newbern, is still living and resides at Elon College. He was for many years after the war a Chrisitan minister and is now spending his latter years quietly at Elon College. He has a son Dr. W. H. Boone, at Durham.

CAROLINIANS IN CONGRESS

Farmers' Free List Being Quoted by Anti-Reciprocity Members—Overman is Popular—North Carolina Officials.

(By H. E. C. Bryant.)

Washington, D. C., April 26.—Senator Simmons and Representatives Webb, Gudger and Doughton point with delight to the report of the Committee on Ways and Means on the Farmers' Free List bill. Several sections seem to bear them out in their views on the Canadian reciprocity measure.

Some paragraphs cited are: "The advantages of the agreement are greater for the people of Canada than for the people of our own country. As the President said in his message of January 26, 1911: 'Reciprocity with Canada must necessarily be chiefly confined in its effect on the cost of living to food and forest products.'

"In fact, action on the Canadian agreement involves the necessity of further and immediate action in removing a number of duties on imports from other countries, in order that justice may be done to the great army of our agricultural producers, who in the Canadian agreement are to have all the alleged protection removed from their products without a corresponding or reciprocal removal of the protective dutles most burdensome on the commodities they must purchase as necessary to sustain their lives and industries. As a beginning in the correction of this injustice, against which our farmers properly protest, the bill herewith reported, has been framed."

"By this measure agricultural tools and implements of every kind are placed on the free list, in order to remove or to prevent any possible discrimination against our farmers in the prices of these necessary articles, and to place them on an equal footing with their competitors elsewhere in the world."

Canada is our competitor.

The committee report quotes from Mr. Taft's Atlanta speech to show that Canada would not give free trade in many things, and the Democrats who oppose the treaty cite the same to show that they are right. The President said: "When we entered upon the negotiations, I authorized the Secretary of State and his commissioners to offer free trade in everything, but this Canada could not grant us, because she has a protective system and she was afraid of the competition of our better organized industries."

The report says: "Practically all that our people eat can be provided by our farmers, but a very large part of it is not and can not be eaten in the form in which it leaves the farm. The meat packing and distributing business of the country is thoroughly organized and is being exploited by a combination of great packing concerns commonly known as the 'beef trust.' The existing duties on meats and meat products are for the advantage of this combination only."

The treaty, anti-reciprocity Congressmen argue, is unfair in that it takes the duty off the cows but keeps it on meat and other products of the beef trust.

"It is well known that this trust, through the strength of its organization and position in the markets, injures the producers of cattle and other animals used for food by forcing down prices; and also oppresses the consumers of meats and meat products by establishing and maintaining high prices for these articles," the report states. "Thus the trust controls the market both in buying and selling, and the result is a substantial addition to the cost of living from which all the people suffer." * * *

"As our population has increased, our exports of foodstuffs and food products have declined and imports increased; under these circumstances duties on these articles have become a heavier burden on the people."

The treaty protects and aids the trusts at the expense of the farmers by giving them cheaper raw materials, says Senator Simmons.

The report continues: "In the Canadian reciprocity agreement, cattle and all other live stock, including swine, sheep and lambs, and likewise wheat, rye, oats, barley, buckwheat, and corn, are placed on the free list. With the removal of duties on imports of these articles from the only country from which real competition could be expected, our farmers are openly and avowedly placed in a free market as to foodstuffs and food products in the forms in which they leave the farm. Representative organizations of the farmers are therefore urging that all the people shall now have the advantage of a free market in buying these foodstuffs and food products in the forms in which they are finally consumed." * * *

"The general public is anxious that no artificial shelter shall be maintained to protect abnormally high prices of food articles in any form. The bill, accordingly places on the free list all meats, whether fresh, cured, prepared, or preserved in any manner, including bacon, hams, shoulders, sausage, and sausage meats and likewise lard, lard compounds and lard substitutes."

The report on the free list bill admits, decalres Mr. Simmons and Mr. Webb, their argument. They say that the farmer would get an unfair deal if the reciprocity treaty is ratified and the Farmers' Free List bill defeated or vetoed.

Senator Overman's bill to apply a part of the proceeds from the sale of public lands for the support and maintenance of farm life schools for the benefit of agriculture and to increase the knowledge of farming is an interesting measure. It provides $25,000 for each State and Territory for the maintenance of such schools for the first year and an increase of $1,000 a year for the next ten years. The funds arising from the sale of public lands are to be used in that way.

The purpose of the measure is to "prepare boys for agricultural pursuits and farm life and girls for home-making and housekeeping on the farm."

An important provision in the bill is that no State or Territory shall receive the appropriation unless it appropriates a like sum for the same purpose.

The money donated is to be handled through the State treasurers, who report to the superintendents of public instruction. An accounting must be made to the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Interior.

None of the sum provided will go for buildings or other permanent improvements which the State must provide.

Senator Overman believes that his bill deserves the support of his colleagues and will ultimately become a law. The farm life school, one that will reach the young country boy and girl, will do much to improve conditions in the country.

Senator Overman is getting his share of the honors nowadays. He will be chairman of the Committee on Woman Suffrage, one of the best minority chairmanships. He won this in a drawing contest. Down at Norfolk Monday, one of the horses that won in the races was named "Overman."

President Benehan Cameron, Secretary A. H. Eller, and Attorney F. R. McNinch, of the North Carolina Railroad, went before the Interstate Commerce Commission this morning and made an appeal for the passes they are entitled to under the lease with the Southern Railway. The commission has held that such transportation is not permissible. It is interstate when one rides out of the State. It is this that the visitors would change. Senaor Overman and Representative Stedman presented the party to the commission.

TIGERS IN NASH.

Long Session of Recorder's Court on Monday—Some Notable Cases.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Nashville, N. C., April 25.—The entire time of the Recorder's Court on Monday was taken up in trying liquor cases. A white man of Rocky Mount had ordered 12 quarts at one time. Three other men got part of the whiskeys, some paying before the whsikey was shipped and some after it was delivered. The State contended the man was guilty. The Recorder held, however, with the defendant. It was shown that the prosecution was a malicious one, but the Recorder held the man was not technically guilty.

Ed. Pollard and Arthur Toney were charged with retailing at Spring Hope. Pollard pleaded guilty, and was fined $25 and costs. Toney fought the case, although there was strong evidence to show that he was doing almost a wholesale business in whikey at Spring Hope. He was fined $100 and costs, and when he gave notice of appeal, the Recorder changed the fine to nine months on the roads.

Will Wilkins, the most notorious blind tiger Nash county nas ever had, is now serving time on the Nashville roads. Wilkins was fined by Judge Cooke and required to stay out of the State for two years. He went to Virginia and flooded his old home with whiskey circulars stating on them among other things, "Here is your old friend, Will Wilkins, again." But the circulars didn't bear fruit fast enough, and a petition with the trumped statement that his wife was in the last stages of consumption brought from Judge Cooke a respite of 30 days. But Will was not content with this liberty, but came several times, and was nabbed by Rocky Mount officers. The good people of Spring Hope employed attorneys to prosecute Wilkins, and they are glad he is doing time on the roads. Some of them think he was backing Arthur Toney.

S.S.S. CURES SKIN DISEASES

A perfect condition of the skin exists as long as the blood is normal, but when it becomes contaminated with humors and acids its supply of nutritive properties is greatly lessened, and it becomes a sharp, acrid fluid which diseases instead of preserving the natural health and texture of the skin. Then come Skin Diseases; the character of the eruption depending upon the nature of the humor with which the blood is infected. If there is an excess of acid in the circulation the trouble is characterized by itching and burning eruptions. Other impurities produce watery blisters, rashes, etc., commonly known as Eczema, Tetter or Salt Rheum, while still other morbid matters in the circulation cause Acne, pimples and like troubles. It is right and proper to get what relief one may from the application of washes, salves, etc., but such treatment should not be depended on alone to produce a cure—only a thorough purification of the blood can accomplish this. S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every character and kind, because it purifies the blood. It goes down into the circulation and removes the humors and acids, builds up the weak, acrid blood, and completely cures all skin affections. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

Have you ordered your Summer coal?

The dissatisfaction of the ice man is justified by this kind of Spring weather.

As May will soon be here, it might be timely to remark that every girl in Wilmington is the Queen of May.

A man who goes fishing and takes his wife along is taking chances on having his psiscatorial prevarications corroborated.

Any Spring poet who would have nerve enough to speak in laudatory terms of this one should get it where the chickens gets it.

Some people are liable to put dynamite under you and use it as prima facie evidence that you intended to commit suicide by blowing up yourself.

The man who is not ready to show his hand when the call is made is not in a fair way of proving an alibi. Always be ready to show your hand and you will avoid even the suspicion of being crooked.

Notwithstanding that Mr. Taft joined in with the stand-patters to the extent of boycotting the insurgents, it is the latter and the Democrats who are going to help him make good as president.—Durham Herald.

Mrs. Mary Irons, of New York, advises that if people want to live to be 100 years old they should "get up at 6 o'clock every morning." Yes, but why get up at 6 o'clock just to be "old and only in the way?"

Wise up on the advantages of Wilmington and its tributary territory. Know your town and emphasize its main points and virtues. Darn the rest! They are small matters to which we can apply a remedy as it suits us.

Mrs. Wm. B. Leeds, has sold her elegant New York mansion and departed for England to make her home there. She says America has become "too common." The mistake such people as Mrs. Leeds makes is in fancying that New York is America.

A Presidential boom has now been started for Senator John W. Kern, of Indiana, while Governor Marshall, of that State hasn't gone anywhere yet. Then there's Wilson, Harmon, Clark, Gaynor, Bryan and others. Why, the Democracy has big men till you can't rest.

Says the Baltimore Sun: "Seeing a bald-headed Indian destroys our illusions regarding the no-hoble red man." We have our doubts about the existence of any bald-headed Indian, but, of course, it's quite possible for an Indian to loe his hair by butting into modern society.

Some Brooklyn Beauties have formed a society and incorporated it under the name of the "Sigma Sorority." They were asked what that means but they refused to say, declaring "We are under pledge not to tell." Of course, the secret will leak out just as soon a one of the girls gets married.

At Providence, R. I., Judge Lee ruled, in the case of Mrs. Elizabeth England against her husband, John E. England, that "a man is justified in slapping his wife for going through his pockets." John had slapped Elizabeth for going through his pockets and she wouldn't stand for it and took him to court. This is a ruling in favor of married men, but no woman will pay a bit of attention to what Judge Lee's opinion is about it.

MILLIONS FOR WILMINGTON.

Wilmington's $13,000,000 banking resources make an extraordinary showing for a city with a population of 25,748, according to the 1910 census. Of course, Wilmington is going right on gaining population and is going to keep on attracting people who are seeking the best place in which to start industrial and business enterprises, so we can assume that last year's census is a back number so far as the size of this city is now concerned.

However, we have to take the census figures when we divide up our banking resources, and when we do that we see that we have a banking capital amounting to between $400 and $500 for every man, woman and child in the city. That is our community cash asset, not to mention our other assets, and that asset is back of the business and industrial enterprises of Wilmington. Our banks, however, are not only supplying the home demand for money, but their financial operations extend into the Carolinas and other States. This shows that Wilmington is able to take care of new-comers who desire to come here to establish manufacturing plants or to go into business of any kind. We are willing to divide our capital with all comers, and if it is not enough to do the business we will increase our banking resources to meet all demands.

What we want to do in Wilmington is to get enough manufacturing enterprises here to keep our banking resources employed at home. At any rate, a large amount of it should be invested in Wilmington instead of being sent abroad to develop other cities. We don't know but that it would be a better idea for Wilmington to become a borrowing city instead of a lending city, but at the same time the fortunate fact that Wilmington has ample capital should be an inducement for investors and promoters to come here to do business. We want to keep our capital at home to build up Wilmington.

From time to time the Star has urged the people of Wilmington to keep their money at home by buying at home, and a few days ago we urged the importance of keeping our capital at home by investing it in Wilmington instead of investing it in other places that are getting the benefit of it. Just as good luck would have it, here comes a clincher from Paris to illustrate what we are driving at. Says the Paris correspondent of the London Telegraph:

"'In ten years France has lent 680,000,000 pounds to the foreigner,' So says M. Edmond Thery at the head of a noteworthy article which he contributes to the Matin. Every one knows that France is a very wealthy country, but all the same, this figure is extremely impressive for more than one reason. The decade to which M. Thery alludes is comprised between January 1, 1899, and December 31, 1908, and this is an enormous sum to have sent abroad. As a matter of fact, this exodus of French capital has given rise, from time to time, to harsh criticism, and the writer frankly admits that it is certainly a cause for deep regret that so vast a sum, instead of having been devoted to the development of the nation's industry and agriculture, should have gone to help the development of new countries which at some future date will be formidable rivals."

It is hardly worth while to add another line, except to note the observation that French capital is being invested in other countries to the detriment of France. In all probability French capital would earn more in the development of France.

RECIPROCITY—THE TWO KINDS.

Reciprocity which will bring about the free admission of raw material and doesn't take off any of the protection on finished products manufactured from the free raw material so secured, is the right kind of reciprocity—for the manufacturer. This is Republican reciprocity, and as a consumer we refuse to be inflated with the idea that it can be palmed off as Democratic.

When they make the raw material cheaper and at the same time cheapen the manufactured product in the same proportion, so the consumer can get some of the benefit, they can entertain us with the suggestion that reciprocity of that kind looks somewhat Democratic.

The kind of reciprocity we hanker after is the reciprocity that aims to help consumers and is not intended to bestow its main benefits on special interests. Reciprocity for manufacturers is Republican, while reciprocity which relieves consumers while not injuring manufacturers can be palmed off as worthy of Democratic support.

"Equal rights for all and special privileges for none" is good old Democratic doctrine, and when Congress gives us the kind of reciprocity that assures equal benefits for all sections and special privileges for no section, it will look good to all kinds of Democrats.

President McKinley, we believe, declared that "reciprocity is the handmaid of protection," and there is no use to dispute it if Republicans are allowed to concoct our reciprocity for us, but reciprocity can have such a different face put on it by a Democratic Congress that it would not be recognized in the house of its Republican friends.

It will be a good idea for all Democrats to stand hitched until they see what kind of reciprocity is going to be given to us, and we rather think that it will take a good while for reciprocity to prove just what it will do for us. It may be a daisy now and a hag tomorrow, so we serve timely warning on all varieties of Democrats not to divide over a thing that is as liable to be one thing as another.

The whole truth is that up to date we see nothing in reciprocity that would justify one Democrat in straddling it to ride over some other Democrat into an office that looks good to him.

PUBLICITY ALL IMPORTANT.

There never has been a day when Southern cities were so actively, determinedly and systematically engaged in attarcting attention to their advantages and engaging in methodical campaigns for the industrial, agricultural and commercial development of their respective communities. In this particular Wilmington gets in the game when the competition in attracting attention is going to be great as well as sharp.

At its regular monthly meeting on Monday night, the Columbia Chamber of Commerce launched a movement for advertising Columbia. The object of the meeting was to raise a fund to pay the expense necessary in giving Columbia the right kind of publicity, and the Evening Record notes that in doing that every man, woman and child in Columbia will be expected to give a dollar. The plan is to issue a booster button to all the givers of a dollar, and while that may bring to the publicity fund quite a lot of money, we fancy that our Columbia friends will also solicit subscriptions from the Columbia people who can afford it and who will get the most out of the development of their city.

Our cities which expect to get much publicity out of small dues paid by members of commercial and booster organizations, and out of dollar plans, will be doomed to disappointment. The process is too slow and the result is two uncertain to warrant a publicity campaign that can be methodically followed. A publicity scheme should be adopted and the money raised to carry it our in a way to make it pay.

Spasmodic advertising may do good, but the cities which go at it right make good. They go after things and take along a sack to bring them back, as they say out West.

The Greenville Daily Reflector has been greatly improved in its print and typography, but we hardly think Editor D. J. Whichard could improve on himself. That would be a hard task, for he is always doing his best according to his opportunity to do, and we know he does even better than his opportunities warrant. Dave is always ahead of the game. The improved appearance of the Reflector is because Editor Whichard has installed a new Miehle power press and naturally that will enable him to get out a better paper. Better facilities always mean a better paper, and by increasing his facilities and bettering his paper he is doing splendid work for Greenville. He is one of Greenville's valuable assets, and that is the way the business men of his town ought to look upon him. Editor Whichard has invested more money to get out a better paper, and the people of his town and county should invest more money in their "sorrel top" editor. When a newspaper maker is doing his best to make good, stand by him and see it well done.

CURRENT COMMENT.

You never lose Atlanta. It now announces that it "is to blaze the way for the South to a ringing endorsement of the permanent peace pact between America and England." That's going some, but it is what the Atlanta Constitution says.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The percentage of assassinations in Italy is very much greater than in any other port of Europe, according to the calculations of a French penologist. England has 3.1 murders per million of her population and Germany 11.1, while Italy reaches the enormous figure of 81.2 per million. There is no capital punishment in Italy. The Paris Croix holds the Camorrists responsible for Italy's bad record.—Savannah News.

They do things better in Japan. The legislative body has just passed what is known as the "advertising signs control" bill. It will go into effect almost at once. The bill provides for the abolishment of advertising signs, or the restriction of their display, when the authorities deem it necessary for the preservation of natural beauty or attractive scenery, or when advertising signs are considered to be "dangerous to life or limb, or prejudicial to public security, order and morals."—Savannah News.

Business that pretends to halt because the Supreme Court of the United States delays its decision in the trust cases is not important. If it did not have this excuse it would present another. The Anti-Trust law has been passed upon by the courts time and again. It has never been weakened in any respect. There has been no disposition, so far as the judiciary is concerned, to read into it any meaning other than that which its plain words convey. The Supreme Court has affirmed its constitutionality and accepted its well-known intent. In one case it surprised some people by defining the difference between production and commerce, but it has never given a hint that it would not on all occasions apply the penalties to every offense which it enumerates.

We do not presume to anticipate the judgment of the court, but we are sure that reputable business men and good lawyers will agree with us when we remark that Wall street, the trusts and all other interests that thrive on monopoly and lawlessness are even now perfectly well satisfied that they have nothing to hope for in this matter except as they shall obey the law.—New York World.

Wilmington Star: "The judge who is opposing the "recall" needn't do anything to be recalled unless he wants to. Every judge should so act that he need not lose any sleep whether there is any recall or not. No man should flee before he is pursued." Opposition to the recall comes with bad grace from the official against whom it would be invoked. It is doubtful, whether it should be given the wisest application, and especially doubtful whether it should be made to apply to judges. Nevertheless, as the Star says, the judge doesn't have to make himself liable to recall if he doesn't want to.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

SUPREME COURT OPINIONS.

Case Involving Corporation Tax Settled—Nine Other Appeals.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 26.—The Supreme Court affirms the lower court in the case of the Corporation Commission vs. Morrison, from Iredell county, involving the right of a corporation to deduct from its tax assessment of capital stock holdings of the corporation in stock of another corporation that pays its taxes.

The Corporation Commission ruled that this could not be done and the Supreme Court affirms this ruling. The opinion is written by Justice Brown. The company involved had $50,000 taxable capital and held $14,000 stock in another corporation and insisted that this should be deducted, leaving $36,000 for taxes to be paid on. The Commission and the Supreme Court hold that this cannot be done, this finally settling a noted question of much interest.

The other nine cases decided follow: Roberts vs. Atlantic Coast Line, Wayne, no error; Unitype Co., vs. Ashcraft Union, no error; Johnson vs. Lassiter, Guilford, no error; Briggs vs. Life Ins. Co., of Virginia, Durham, motion dismissed; Mayor vs. Oglesby, Mecklenburg, docketed and dismissed under Rule 17; Whitfield vs. Bernard (two appeals), Surry, the court being evenly divided in opinion, (Judge Brown not sitting,) Judgments in both appeals stand affirmed; Ross vs. Southern Railway Co., Randolph, the court being evenly divided in opinion, (Judge Allen not sitting), judgment below stands affirmed. Robinson vs. Raleigh & Southport Railway, Wake, affirmed.

High Point, N. C., April 26.—The opening session of the State Sunday School convention was held this afternoon, a large audience present. A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent: J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., Front and Grace streets.

PLANNING TO BEAUTIFY CITY

Civic Improvement Committee of Chamber of Commerce Held Enthusiastic Meeting—Will Join Association.

A number of important matters for advancing the movement to beautify the city, were discussed at an enthusiastic meeting of the Civic Improvement Committee, an auxiliary of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, and it was decided to place on file civic improvement literature at the Chamber and to make application for membership in the National Civic Association.

The meeting was well attended by members of the committee and was presided over by Mr. John J. Blair, the chairman. Civic improvement plans have been under way for some time past and progress along this line, through the activities of the committee, is being made.

One of the most important things decided upon yesterday is the placing of literature on plans for beautifying cities at the Chamber of Commerce, to be known as the Civic Improvement Library, which will be at the disposal of the Wilmington public. The committee also agreed to make application for membership in the National Civic Association, with headquarers in Washington, D. C., in order to promote interest in civic work in Wilmington. It will be recalled that Mr. MacFarland, who spoke some time ago in this city on civic improvement, is president of the National Association.

The committee has requested literature and plans on the subject from Mr. J. H. Nolen, of Cambridge, Mass.; Mr. Harlan P. Kelsey, of Salem, Mass., and Mr. Geo. E. Kessler, of Kansas City, Mo., all of whom are city planners who are employed in civic improvement work. It was also decided that a representative from Wilmington be sent to the Third National Conference on City Planning, which will be held at Philadelphia, May 15-17th. The meeting yesterday was one of the most interesting and enthusiastic ever held by the committee.

REAL ESTATE MARKET ACTIVE.

Many Deeds Placed on Record Yesterday—Part in County.

Sales of real estate during the past few days have been unusually active and a larger number of deeds were placed on record yesterday than for any one day in quite a while. About as many of the transfers, however, were in the vicinity of Winter Park as in the city of Wilmington.

Following were among the deeds recorded yesterday: Janette Haynes to Mary A. Jones, for $1 and love and affection, lot 33x165 on the western side of Anderson street, 66 feet south of Rankin. Nonie F. King and Mrs. Katie B. Corbett to John W. Webber, for $125, lot 8 in Block 6, according to the official plan of Love's Grove. D. R. Foster and wife to Winter Park Gardens Company, for $10 and other valuable consideration, two lots or parcels of land at Winter Park adjoining the property of the late T. F. Tyler. T. L. Skipper and wife to J. Holmes Davis, for $10, lot 67x82 feet, at the northeast intersection of the eastern line of Eighth street with the northern line of Dawson street. Jas. F. Tripp and wife to James Arthur Tripp, of Jacksonvine, Fla., for $10 and other consideration, Lot 14 in Block 8, of Carolina Place. Charles C. Loughlin, commissioner, to D. R. Foster, for $2,225, two tracts of land on the turnpike at Winter Park, same being property formerly owned by late T. F. Tyler. C. C. Chadbourn and wife to Louis Rudolph Frost, for $800, lot on the eastern side of Second street 173 feet north of Meares, same being part of lots 3 and 4 in Block 18. M. J. Jackson and wife to Nettie Morton, for $100 and other valuable consideration, lot 40x66 feet on the western side of Seventh street, 148 feet north of Wooster.

PURCHASED HANDSOME HOME.

Mr. Chas. N. Evans Acquires Valuable Property on Market Street.

By deed filed for record Tuesday, the purchase by Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern National Bank, of the handsome residence at No. 914 Market street, became known. While the consideration is given at $1,000 and other considerations, it is understood that Mr. Evans paid in the neighborhood of $8,000 for the residence, which is one of the handsomest and most eligibly located dwellings in the city. It was originally erected by Mr. John C. Stout, the architect and contractor and occupied by him for several years, later being sold to Mr. W. J. Croswell and ocupied by the family and that of Mr. J. W. Norwood for some time. It is a very handsome and comfortable home and was purchased by Mr. Evans from Mrs. Croswell, now of Greenville, S. C. He is to be congratulated upon his acquisition.

SCHOONER FAR UP RIVER.

The William Linthicum Will Receive Cargo Near Rocky Point.

The schooner William Linthicum, Capt. Flowers, which arrived this week with cement for the Seaboard, will be towed up the Northeast river to a distance, which is stated to be further than any vessel of her size has gone. She will receive cargo of lumber from the Perry Lumber Company near Rocky Point. The distance is about 31 miles from Wilmington. She will be towed both ways by one of the small river tugs, only these being able to navigate this distance up the river. The Linthicum is now discharging cargo at the Seaboard.

A CARD.

To the Public:—I wish to assure you that the statement that is being circulated by some of my friends that I am a "Sewerage Candidate" is absolutely false. I am in no way connected with the Sewerage Company and never have been, in any capacity. I feel that I could act as impartially on the sewerage question as on any other and if I am elected Councilman will certainly work for the best interest of the City.

REWARD FOR ELECTION FRAUD RECORDS.

The Law against the use of money in Elections in Wilmington is very stringent.

It is unlawful to pay or receive money, or anything of value for votes, for influence, or for work in Elections. It is a violation of the law to offer to pay for another person's time spent in Election work. It is unlawful to promise or to accept any office or position as a compensation for your vote, influence, time or support.

A fund of $1,000.00 has been placed in my hands to be used in the interest of a clean, fair vote, and I offer a reward of $100 to any one who will submit evidence sufficient to convict for any violation of the Election Laws in the coming Election.

ADDRESS ON PUBLIC HEALTH

Highly Important Talk by Dr. Rankin of State Board of Health—Things That The City Should Do.

In an entertaining and highly instructive address delivered at the auditorium of the High School last night under the auspices of the Wilmington Civic League, Dr. W. S. Rankin, of Raleigh, secretary of the State Board of Health, discussed the subject of "Preventable Diseases and Municipal Sanitation," and especially as relating to the City of Wilmington. He was heard by a large audience and stated facts that were very surprising to many of his hearers.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Akerman in a few appropriate remarks. Dr. Rankin prefaced his address by referring to the noble work done for the State by the late Dr. Thomas F. Wood, founder of the State Board of Health, and father of Dr. Edward Jenner Wood, of this city, who also takes a deep interest in matters relating to the public health. He also mentioned the fact that the president of the State Board of Health at the present time resides in Wilmington, Dr. George G. Thomas.

The speaker said that in order to tell what a city needed it was necessary to make some examination, just as much so in fact as when treating a patient. With this idea in view, he stated that he went over the city of Wilmington yesterday accompanied by Drs. Akerman and E. J. Wood, and he told of the filthy condition of the streets in many parts of the city, and the unsanitary conditions prevailing here. As compared with the general death rate throughout the entire country he said that during the course of a year there are 150 deaths in Wilmington that should be prevented. If Wilmington had the same death rate as Havana, Cuba, the number of deaths in a year would be 100 less, and if the same as Chicago from 160 to 170 less. And even with this condition the speaker said Wilmington occupied middle ground, as conditions in Raleigh and Goldsboro are worse, but better in Asheville, Charlotte, Winston-Salem and Greensboro.

He told of an experiment in Raleigh when five citizens were called up and asked their idea of health conditions, the reply to which that it was good; and as to the number of deaths. The answer given by a college president was, that number of deaths during year was about sixty; from a banker sixty; leading merchant sixty; State official 100, and practicing physician 300. As a matter of fact the number of deaths during the past year, he said, were 518. This was cited in an instance of how little the average person knows of conditions relating to the public health.

"The general death rate," said Dr. Rankin, is the most important single piece of evidence of the health of a place. Just as general vitality in an individual is counted in the rise and fall of the pulse wave, so the general vitality of the body politic is counted in the rise and fall of its death rate. At first glance this symptom might appear as misleading. In certain cases attention might be called to the fact that diseases like hookworm and malaria, rarely terminate fatally. This seeming inaccuracy disappears when we recall that diseases, not of themselves terminating in a fatal issue, tend to that end by lowering the general resistance of the body to death-dealing germs, and so indirectly and ultimately register their existence in increasing death rates."

"The tuberculosis death rate, as a health indication, is second in importance, only to the general death rate. As the number of respirations indicates the functions of the lungs, that is, the ventilation of the individual body, so the tuberculosis death rate in the city indicates the condition—good or bad—of municipal respiration, if good, the abundance of parks, the absence of crowded streets and narrow alleys, and the average citizen's value of air. The average tuberculosis death rate in the United States, as already given, is 161.5 per 100,000.

"The typhoid death rate is third in importance as a health indication, and is probably the best indication to the sanitary intelligence of a community. Since 1880 we have known how this disease is carried, and therefore, how prevented. The result of the dissemination of this knowledge is shown by the decline of the typhoid death rate per half decade since 1880, as follows: 55, 46, 38, 33, 28, 23 and 21.

"The amount of typhoid in any town or community is in direct proportion to the quantity of human excrement consumed by the average citizen. This is the only cause of typhoid fever. Such filth may be served with our food, transported thereto by flies, or taken dissolved in our drinking water, or conveyed to us on the unwashed hands of some of our friends, who neglect to wash off excrement of typhoid patients before serving our meals. The average typhoid death rate is 22 per 100,000, as already given.

"The malarial death rate in excess of 2.5 per 100,000, or .025 per 1,000, means an excessive amount of stagnant water, and an abundance of mosquitoes in or around the town or community. By stagnant water, as here used, we mean water that has stood at least twelve days; if it should dry up sooner than this, no mosquitoes would hatch as their eggs require at least twelve days to mature."

"Cause of the disease politic may be stated in just two words—ignorance and indifference. The latter is very largely a part of the former. It is impossible to conceive that the citizen of average intelligence could remain as indifferent as he is if he really knew that ten, fifty, or one hundred people die in his town or community every year whose deaths could have been prevented.

"The physical appearance of a diseased town are the garbage strewn streets, the clogged gutters, the untrimmed hedges, the unkept lawns, an abundance of open, unsanitary privies, unregulated horse stables, stagnant pools of water in the suburbs, and an abundance of mosquitoes, flies and spit-marks everywhere. I have purposely omitted the pig-pen, which besides the unsanitary privy and unregulated horse stable, is a sanitary luxury."

The speaker asserted that it is well recognized that the only way to handle anything effectively that affects the public is by law, but that before laws protecting against the forces of disease can be passed the community must have that out of which law is made, and by which law is enforced—an intelligent, interested public sentiment—and such public sentiment, he said, is the product of education. Education, he declared, is a common necessity and a requirement in all cases of disease politic, but there is special treatment in the form of sanitary recommendations.

"To go to a small community or small town, or to any town or city where public sentiment is weak and make a large number of sanitary recommendations," Dr. Rankin said, "is about as wise as to administer an adult dose of medicine to a child of a few years of age, or as to give to a patient in a few days the medicine that should be administered in several weeks. In each of the latter cases the stomach is upset and the treatment rejected. Never give more medicine than can be kept on the stomach; never make more sanitary recommendations than you can have accepted. Get one thing done, then return and persuade the people to take an additional step."

Seven recommendations were made by Dr. Rankin, and each of the utmost importance to the health of the city of Wilmington.

First, he recommended that the city and county unite and secure the services of an efficient health officer and he be required to give his entire time to the office. The speaker dwelt on the great benefit to be derived from a consolidation of this office.

Second, to require all houses to be connected with sewers where there are sewerage facilities, and where there are no sewers to require the installation of sanitary privies, and to charge a license sufficient to have same kept clean and sanitary and not allow them to be looked after in a haphazard manner.

Third, to have a central abattoir and crematory. Many of the larger towns of the State, Dr. Rankin stated, already have this modern method of freeing the city of garbage and the refuse to be found around slaughter pens.

Fourth, to pass the proper ordinance to prevent the keeping of cows and conducting dairies in the thickly populated sections of the city. He commented on the dangers arising from these stables as they are regular breeders of flies.

Fifth, the importance of draining all pools where practicable and the use of oil where the stagnant pools cannot be drained in order to kill out mosquitoes. He spoke in very high terms of the excellent work being done by the Wilmington Civic League along this line.

Sixth, to get an ordinance passed requiring all soda fountains to disinfect all glasses and cups used.

Seventh, to enforce the ordinance applying to the screening of food products.

Dr. Rankin suggested to the Wilmington Civic League that they get cards for the members to sign pledging to keep their yards and premises in a clean and sanitary condition and to only patronize those stores and markets that comply with the law relative to the screening of food products.

ENGINE WAS ATTACHED.

Alleged That Engine Ordered Did Not Come Up to Contract.

Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur yesterday instituted suit in the Superior Court against the Harriman Motor Works for the non-payment of $380 and attachment papers were secured and a gasolene engine belonging to the defendant company seized.

The affidavit for the warrant of attachment set forth that the defendant company agreed to sell to the plaintiff a certain engine for $950 and that when the same was ordered the sum of $380 was paid but was to be refunded if the engine did not come up to specifications; that the engine weighed forty pounds more than the contract called for and that the workmanship was defective, and although the money had been demanded by plaintiff it had not been paid.

OBSERVED ITS ANNIVERSARY

Odd Fellows of the City Spent Enjoyable Evening—Excellent Programme Rendered—Address by W. L. Smith, Esq.

The 92nd anniversary of the foundation of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the United States was appropriately observed last night when several hundred members of the order in this city and their friends, as well as the Daughters of Rebekah, assembled at the Odd Fellow' hall where an interesting programme was presented.

The attendance was the largest in several years. Anniversary celebrationes were held throughout the length and breadth of the land last night, for each year some certain date is set for such celebration by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The hall of the Odd Fellows building was tastefully decorated with palms and ferns. Col. Walker Taylor was master of ceremonies and presided in his usual dignified manner.

An orchestra composed of Messrs. J. A. Fettel, Wilbur Dosher, Albert Dosher, Cameron MacRae, Alva Staniland, T. K. Curtis and Miss Hattie Gardner, presiding at the piano, furnished the music of the evening, in conjunction with a quartette composed of Messrs. McB. Wilson, R. M. Schulken, W. L. Whitted and R. C. Ruark.

Following an overture by the orchestra, the exercises were opened by Rev. S. Mendelsohn in a beautiful prayer. Mr. John A. Orrell then read the proclamation from the Sovereign Grand Lodge ordering the celebration of the 92nd anniversary. This was followed by several selections by the quartette.

The address of the evening wa to have been made by Hon. John D. Bellamy but he telephoned last night that he was engaged in the trial of a suit in Columbus Superior Court and it was impossible for him to be present. W. L. Smith, Esq., was then called upon and made a most interesting talk. He spoke of the fact that at the present time the Order of Odd Fellows has a total membership of 2,000,000, which is largely in excess of the membership of any other secret organization. In the State of North Carolina are 16,000 Odd Fellows, with lodges in every town and hamlet, and the city of Wilmington alone has a membership of 650, with four lodges, Cape Fear No. 2, Orion No. 67, Wilmington No. 139, Hanover No. 145, and Letitia Lodge No. 3, Daughters of Rebekah, as well as Campbell Encampment, No. 1. The speaker touched upon the fact that an effort is being made here to form The Canton, which is the military branch of the order. He spoke of the magnificent spectacle presented in Atlanta at the last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge when 1,600 members of The Canton branch, in full uniform, marched through the city.

Mr. Smith dwelt at some length upon the splendid work being done by the Odd Fellows Orphanage at Goldsboro, where $100,000 is invested. He gave different instances in which boys and girls who have gone out from the orphanage and have made good in every sense of the word. At present there are 165 children in the orphanage and eight old people, there being a department for the aged.

Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., was announced for an address but he told the assemblage that he had prepared no address and would speak at random. He made a very interesting talk and interspersed his remarks with several anecdotes that were highly enjoyed.

The programme was brought to a close by prayer by Dr. Mendelsohn.

The pleasure of the meeting was marred to a certain extent by the absence of Mr. Richard J. Jones, who has been confiened to his home with lagrippe for several weeks. A special committee was appointed to inform Mr. Jones of the regret of all assembled that he was not able to participate in the celebration. Mr. Jones is said to be the oldest Odd Fellow in the United States in respect to the number of years that he has belonged to the order. He has been a member of Cape Fear Lodge for 62 years, and this lodge was chartered in 1842. Mr. Jones is past grand master for the State of North Carolina, past representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and has been treasurer of the order in this State for the past 55 years.

At the conclusion of the programme the Odd Fellows and their friends went to the Odd Fellows hall in the adjoining building where ice cream and cake were served. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner by all.

NATIONAL WOOD DISTILLING CO.

Promises to Become an Important Enterprise in the South.

Reference was made a short time ago to a new and marvelous process of wood distillation invented by Mr. Thomas W. Pritchard, the chemist, of this city, and of the incorporation of a stock company to finance the new and promising enterprise. The Star is glad to learn that the new enterprise is succeeding beyond the fondest expectations of its promoters and that practical men everywhere are declaring and substantially manifesting their faith in the enterprise. Mr. H. M. Chase is president; Mr. T. W. Pritchard, vice president, and Mr. James Kyle, secretary-treasurer, of the company, which is promoting the new and valuable invention.

A very strong testimonial to the practical value of the invention by Mr. Pritchard was given yesterday in a vis it to the plant by Mr. A. M. Prince, who has been interested in timber and naval stores all his life and has only recently returned from a trip through Florida investigating developments in his line. Mr. Prince saw a practical demonstration of the plant at work and was so charmed with the possibilities of the new method of wood distillation that he immediately evidenced his faith by stating that he would take $5,000 stock in the enterprise. It is a pleasure for Wilmington people to know that practically all the stock in the parent organization has been taken and that the outlook is for the early building of a large plant in this city, with others in this territory where the raw product is said to be practically inexhaustible.

Baseball at League Park.

In a snappy game of baseball played at League Park yesterday, the "Old Time Tigers" defeated the "Union Prep. Freshmen" team, the score being 2 to 6. The Tigers hit Canady, of the "Preps." all over the field, after the fifth inning, netting ten hits in two innings, according to a report given the Star. The "Preps." scored in the first inning on a wild throw. The Tigers tied it up in the fourth by a spectacular squeeze play, well executed. In the eighth Shepherd peeled off a two-sacker, which was the feature of the game, with the hitting of the Tigers all through the game. The batteries were: Canady and Leitgen; Shephard and McIntyre.

Before Allowing an Operation

Please Read These Two Letters.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will prove how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before. Then after all that suffering Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored her health.

HERE IS HER OWN STATEMENT.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement—I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief, and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. To-day I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise every woman who is afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. Orville Rock, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Mich.

"There never was a worse case."

Rockport, Ind.—"There never was a worse case of woman's ills than mine, and I cannot begin to tell you what I suffered. For over two years I was not able to do anything. I was in bed for a month and the doctor said nothing but an operation would cure me. My father suggested Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so to please him I took it, and I improved wonderfully, so I am able to travel, ride horseback, take long rides and never feel any ill effects from it. I can only ask other suffering women to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation."—Mrs. Margaret Meredith, R. F. D. No. 3, Rockport, Ind.

We will pay a handsome reward to any person who will prove to us that these letters are not genuine and truthful—or that either of these women were paid in any way for their testimonials, or that the letters are published without their permission, or that the original letter from each did not come to us entirely unsolicited.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

MINISTERING CIRCLE ENJOYS AN OUTING.

One of the most thoroughly delightful of the early Spring outings in Wilmington social circles was that on Tuesday by the Minstering Circle of the King's Daughters, on the steamer Wilmington, down the historic Cape Fear to the elegant estate of Mr. and Mrs. James Sprunt, at Orton Plantation. The outing was for the benefit of the District Nurse Fund and some two hundred Wilmington people enjoyed the pleasures of the day, leaving the city on the steamer at 10 o'clock in the morning and returning the same evening. The beautiful Sprunt home was thrown open to the visitors and luncheon was served there, the day having been spent in exploration of the many historical scenes in and around Orton and in admiring the beautiful scenery from this point of pre-eminent vantage. The party was most elegantly taken care of by Capt. John W. Harper on his splendid steamer and the day will linger long in the pleasant memories of those who were so fortunate as to be in attendance.

LAVENDER AND WHITE WEDDING YESTERDAY.

A wedding that was of much interest to many friends in this city took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Miss Carrie Sophia Ortmann, daughter of the late Capt. F. W. Ortmann, and Mr. Frederick Charles Tiencken were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride, 104 North Fifth street.

The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion with bamboo, ferns and Easter lilies, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church. The maid of honor was Miss Elise Ortmann, a sister of the bride, and the best man was Mr. Geo. Tiencken, brother of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. F. W. Ortmann. The ushers were Messrs. Henry Ortmann, Henry Tiencken, and the ring bearers were little Miss Margaret and Master John Tiencken.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white satin messaline with bridal veil and carried bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was gowned in lavender crepe de chine.

After the wedding a reception was tendered the happy couple, when they received the hearty and best wishes of their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Tiencken left on the afternoon train for New York, Washington and points north, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were Misses Amelia and Elise Stelings, of Charleston, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Eckman, of New York.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Lawther, 114 North Seventh street, when Miss Bella Lawther, the charming and attractive daughter of Mrs. Thomas Lawther, became the bride of Mr. Irvin M. Craig, a clever and genial young man of this city. The home was crowded with the numerous friends of the young couple and was very elaborately decorated for the occasion with flowers and ferns. An improvised altar was arranged in the parlor and was composed of palms and ferns, where the ceremony took place. The ceremony was very impressively performed by Rev. D. I. Craig, father of the groom, assisted by Rev. A. D. McClure, the ring service being used.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Lawther, the maid, of honor, and the best man was Mr. Carl B. Craig, a brother of the groom. During the ceremony Miss Taylor rendered several appropriate selections on the piano. After the ceremony the young couple drove to the union station where they boarded the train for Columbia, S. C., and other points south, and will later go to Reidsville, N. C., to visit Mr. Craig's parents. After their return to the city Mr. and Mrs. Craig will be at home to their friends at corner of Second and Grace streets.

The bride is an attractive and charming young lady of this city and her wide circle of friends will wish her much happiness. Mr. Craig is a clever and popular young man and holds a good position with the Atlantic Coast Line in this city. A reception was given Wednesday night at the home of the bride's mother in honor of the bride and groom. Many handsome presents were received.

CONFEDERACY DAUGHTERS OBSERVE 'SHILOH DAY."

All over the country yesterday, wherever it is felt the patriotic and beneficient influence of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, there was a celebration of what is known as "Shiloh Day," in commemoration of the battle of Shiloh, where so many brave Confederate soldiers gave up their lives in a cause they believed to be just. With Cape Fear Chapter, U. D. C., of this city, the occasion was marked by an unusually appropriate and patriotic observance at the Wilmington Light Infantry armory, beginning at 4:30 o'clock, the attendance having been one of the largest on record, including both the Daughters and Children of the Confederacy and quite a number of veterans themselves who joined heartily in the spirit of the occasion.

The observance here was especially pleasant on account of the presence of the State President, Mrs. F. M. Williams, of Newton, N. C.; Mrs. Robert Davis, of Louisburg, State Registrar; Mrs. W. M. Parsley, the honorary State president, of Wilmington; Miss Hettie James, State Chaplain, and Mrs. W. M. Creasy, State Recorder of Crosses. The programme was delightfully arranged and executed under the direction of the Entertainment Committee of the Chapter, of which Mrs. Cuthbert Martin is chairman and Mrs. Richard Price and Mrs. F. L. Huggins are the other members. They deserve the highest credit for an evening altogether delightful and most fitting to the occasion of Shiloh Day.

The hall was beautifully decorated in red and white and evergreens, the center table being especially beautiful in its decoration of white roses, flowers and Confederate flags. Following the formal part of the exercises dainty refreshments were served, the sherberts being with red cherries and red and white cake, the colors of the chapter., The programme was altogether pleasing and opend with a piano solo by Miss Julia Post, who gave the pretty, old war song, "The Maiden's Prayer," which was beautifully rendered, Miss Post having played all the piano accompaniments for the vocal numbers on the programme.

Perhaps the most interesting and pleasing feature of the exercises was the reading of the prize essay by its author, Mr. Hiram King, on "The Battle of Shiloh." A prize of $5 in gold was recently offered for the best essay on thi subject and the committee of award decided that Mr. King's essay wa the best of the number offered in the competition and not only attracted the great admiration for the excellence of the essay but also for the manner of its delivery, which was greeted with most enthusiastic applause.

Following the reading of the prize essay, Mrs. J. D. Edwards gave great pleasure to the assemblage by singing "Afterwards." This number was followed by a few remarks about the life and character of Gen. Albert Sydney Johnson and the reading of his epitaph, found in an old scrap book, the reading having been by Mrs. Andrew J. Howell. Another number that gave much pleasure was "Annie Laurie," rendered as a vocal solo by Mrs. E. K. Bryan. This was followed by a most interesting and most inspiring address by Mrs. Williams, the State President, upon Shiloh Day at the conclusion of which she made the presentation of the prize for the essay, the five dollars in gold being wrapped in a tiny silk Confederate flag. Mrs. Williams also spoke briefly and most interestingly to George Davis, Children's Chapter, on the battle of Shiloh and the four Confederate Flags. She was heard with much interest and pleasure by all, having been presented in a neat little address by Mr. Eugene S. Martin, dean of the Wilmington bar.

"Maryland, My Maryland" added to the number of patriotic songs given during the afternoon and this was sung by Miss McIntosh, who charmed her hearers with her splendid voice. The social features of the afternoon were admirably arranged and members of Cape Fear Chapter do not recall a more delightful or more enthusiastic meeting.

"A Doll's House."

"Clouds that have seemed to obscure the meaning of that most subtle of dramatists, Henrik Ibsen, vanished like mist before the sun when Mme. Harriet Labadie explained her conception of Ibsen's characters as we read them in his dramas," wrote a recent interviewer. "There is nothing abnormal about Ibsen's characters," Mme. Labadie declared. "They are men and women whom we meet in our every-day life, although we may not at onece detect the semblance. It has been one of my highest aims to help to stimulate a desire for a greater knowledge of Ibsen by interpreting his works according to what I feel must have been his own conception, for he is, indeed, a master of dramatic literature and, consciously or unconsciously he has influenced the foremost writers of today.

"Ibsen merely removes the front wall of the house and allows us to observe the drama as it is enacted within. Of course, he shows us some very unpleasant things. We dont like to look upon the seamy side of life, especially when it looks familiar. But we must look upon some of these unpleasant conditions and think about them seriously if we are to outgrow some of our present-day faults and misapprehensions."

"Ibsen believes that the emancipation of the world must come through women, and those women the mothers. He wants women to see that much of their life is fiction, that many of their homes only doll's houses as Nora Helmer discovered her's to be, and calls upon them to recognize the responsibilities for the good of the race. It is very simple and plain after all."

Madame Labadie, whose dramatic interpretation of "Gossip" last Tuesday came as a revelation to her hearers, will make her second and last appearance at the Academy of Music tonight, when she will present Ibsen's "A Doll's House."

The Grand Theatre.

The crowds are still flocking to the Grand, and why? Simply because the Grand gives you a show that everyone enjoys and the management caters to you all. You are as safe in the Grand theatre as if you were in your own home. Plenty of exits in case of an accident that might occur. The house is at all times cool and comfortable and room for everybody. The theatre shows three reels of pictures every day and each and every one is new and instructive. The management has just installed a new arc in the picture machine which makes every portion of a picture plain and distinct so that you can see each character that is performing. Don't hesitate in sending down the little ones. The Grand will amuse them. Mr. Baldwin will sing today a selected ballad, "You For Me When You Are Sweet Sixteen," and illustrated beautifully. What is a show of any kind worth without music? An orchestra consisting of musicians that are hard to beat is furnished at the Grand. Remember the doors open at 2 P. M. and the show continues until 11 P. M.

At the Bijou.

When it comes to popularity the Bijou seems to have a perpetual lease on the "blue-ribbon." This is evinced daily by the big crowds that flock to this attractive theatre. Both afternoon and night the Bijou is a mecca for folks, who find just the merriest and purest type of enjoyment. Daily three reels of films, a new song by popular Frank Banks, selections on the giant orchestral electrical piano and other features are offered. The theatre possesses comfortable seats and is constantly swept by cooling breezes. It is also equipped with the very latest and most expensive of machinery, which presents the pictures without the slightest flicker and as clearly as a daylight scene. This is one of the particularly strong and attrative features at the Bijou. Today another giant new bill, embracing the latest films by the standard film makers, will be presented. The new bill, in its entirety, goes on at the first matinee performance this afternoon.

Crystal Palace.

The mysterious Don and Quincy Shrier at the Crystal Palace this week is undoubtedly the biggest hit of the season. They do a four-round boxing bout in a 12-foot ring with seconds, referee, etc., and "go after it" in a genuine pugilistic manner. They were trained by the famous Battling Nelson, ex lightweight champion of the world, and he has predicted a great future for the boys. Another stellar attraction is Little Audrey, a sister of the Shriers. This dainty doll is only six years old, yet sings with surprising melody and strength all the latest rag-time tunes and is loudly applauded at every appearance. An up-to-date black-face comedian in new gags and dances is another feature this week that is pulling.

Joyland.

On Friday Joyland will be in the hands of the High School Orchestra a new organization but one that has much local fame, and is doing some good work at recent occasions in the city. They will render some of the best numbers in their repertoire in the classical way for which they are known. Mr. Reilly will sing a double bill of songs, presenting two late song hits, besides an especially selected and large bill of pictures, and the admission price for this day will be 10 cents. For today they have a bill unsurpassed for quantity and quality. Mr. Reilly has selected a song that will especially please the youngsters, "Let Us Build a House for Two."

COTTON MARKET MORE ACTIVE

Sharp Advance in Prices During the Day—General Buying of New Crop Positions Was Feature—Opening Firm.

New York, April 26.—The cotton market was broader and more active today than for months past, and prices had a very sharp advance; the feature being the general buying of new crop positions and a scare of shorts, attributed to prospects that renewed rains in the South would mean a further delay in new crop preparations, and to continued reports of a strong spot situation. The close was steady, at a net advance of 6@20 points, with the new crop showing the maximum gain.

The opening was firm, at an advance of 6@14 points, in response to firm cables, apprehensions of heavy rain storms in the southwest, inspired by reports of a low barometer off the Texas coast, and precipitation of over four inches at Galveston; private reports of delayed planting, continued large English spot sales, and wires from the South claiming a further improvement in spot demand. Realizing was heavy at the advance, but was so readily absorbed and that only slight reactions occurred during the day, and the highest prices were reached in the late trading when May contracts sold at 15.20, July at 15.34 and October at 13.34, or 12 to 32 points above the closing figures of last night.

A moderate set-back occurred towards the close, under realizing and selling for a turn, but final quotations were within 3 or 4 points of the best, on the new crop deliveries and the short interest for Fall and Winter delivery acted almost panic-stricken during the day, owing to the continued strength of the old crop situation and the fear of further delays in an already late planting, as a result of the official forecast for general showers or rains over the South tonight or tomorrow. July contracts at 15.34 showed an advance of about $8 a bale from the low level touched on the break of last February, and recovered to within 11 points of the high record for the season, which was made last December.

Receipts today, 9,000 bales, against 51,933 last week, and 68,172 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 4,400 bales, against 3,106 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 20 points higher; middling uplands, 15.35; middling gulf, 15.60; sales, 147 bales.

Futures opened firm and closed firm.

A SLOW ADVANCE IN STOCKS

Yesterday Market Somewhat Broader. Short Covering a Factor—Temporary Depression at Opening—Features.

New York, April 26.—Accumulation of stocks continued today in sufficient volume to cause another moderate advance in prices. The action of the market was much the same as on the other days of the week, with hesitation and temporary depression at the opening, and a subsequent slow advance.

On every decline of recent days there has appeared keen competition for stocks at the lower prices, which has brought about a quick recovery. Today's market was somewhat broader, the demand extending to specialties such as the fertilizer, telegraph, electric and traction shares. Short covering was undoubtedly a factor, and there were indications here and there through the list that the short interest had been over-extended. The bulk of buying, however, seemed for the long rather than the short account. Among the market leaders Union Pacific and Reading were especially strong. Late in the day there was considerable bullish activity in the Canadian group, various Southern stocks and the Eries.

United States Steel once more was the center of interest, on account of disappointing character of the earnings for the last quarter, as announced yesterday, the stock was sold heavily at the opening, but speedily rallied from its early depression. An important development of the day was the increasing demand for various issues of bonds, including many semi-speculative issues. Sales of bonds today were in excess of any recent day, and several railroad and municipal issues touched record prices. Sales of two issues of railroad bonds, amounting to nearly $20,000,000, were reported. Amalgamated Copper's brief period of activity at advancing prices was interrupted today, the stock declining nearly a point. The bond market was firm. Total sales, par value, $4,215,000. United States bonds were unchanged, on call. Total sales of stocks today, 278,600 shares.

ROCKY POINT ITEMS.

Closing of Graded School Next Friday. Berries Moving Slow.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., April 26.—The Graded School at this place will close Friday, April 28th, with appropriate and attractive exercises. Prof. J. J. Blair, of Wilmington, is expected to be here and address the school and patrons, and quite a large crowd of the latter is expected. A State High School for Rocky Point is assured for next Fall term. There will be given a play, "The Old Maids' Club of Rocky Point," by local talent, and those who have seen the rehearsals pronounce it very good. The public is cordially invited to attend and laugh and grow fat, without money and without price. A State Graded School is assured for Rocky Point for the Fall term.

The movement of berries is light, hardly one-tenth the crop having been marketed at this time last year. The effect of the frost is shown plainly on blackened beans, cukes, etc.

GOOD NEWS

Many Wilmington Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Wilmington are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. L. F. Rivenbark, Wilmington, N. C., says: "Dull, nagging backaches and severe pains in my kidneys caused me considerable suffering. I could not rest well and in the morning when arising felt tired and languid and had no strength or ambition. The kidney secretions were unnatural and deposited sediment, from which symptom I decided that my kidneys were out of order. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's Drug store and they gave me relief almost immediately. Since then backache has never bothered me any my kidneys have been normal."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BOOKER WASHINGTON SPEAKS.

Talks of Educational Conditions of Negro Race in the Country.

Boston, April 26.—Dr. Booker T. Washington, president of Tuskegee Institute, was one of the speakers today at "Fisk University Day," of the "World in Boston Missionary Exposition." In urging support for the negro college at Nashville, Tenn., Dr. Washington said:

"Forty-five years of Fisk University means 45 years of progress for the negro race. Perhaps it is true that the life of few institutions in the South are more closely linked with the progress of the black people than is Fisk University. It was among the pioneer institutions planted in the South for the benefit of our people. During 45 years it has done its work wisely and successfully through the graduates and ex-students who are now at work for the uplifting of humanity in every part of the South.

"Fisk University not only presents an object lesson in the matter of college education, but in the direction of securing the sympathy, the confidence and the co-operation of both races and both sections of our country this institution stands as a model. In the city of Nashville, Fisk has the good wishes and the active help of black people, of white people from the North, and white people at the South. It will require the combined effort of those three groups to bring about the satisfactory solution of the problem in which we are so vitally interested.

"Few people realize to what an extent the nation is indebted to the educated colored men for the maintainance of peace between the races. While many race wars have been predicted, no serious and prolonged racial conflict has taken place in recent years in the South. It has been in a very large degree the influence of the educated negro who has counseled patience, forbearance and sympathetic co-operation between the races that has prevented disgraceful outbreaks and has resulted in securing and maintaining a large degree of peace and harmony between the races.

"The people of this nation should remember that the negro is not a beggar so far as his personal needs are concerned. He supports himself in clothes and in shelter and has done so for 45 years. The only call that he has made upon the public has been for aid in the direction of education, moral and religious training; that call I believe we have the right to make through Fisk University and such a call will be answered."

FEDERAL COURT AT WILSON.

Senator Overman Introduces Bill to This Effect.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 26.—There is much interest here in the effect of the bill recently introduced in Congress by Senator Overman for the establishment of a Federal court at Wilson, which is now embraced in the territory that contributes to the business of the court here in Raleigh. Wilson has procured appropriation for a government building and, following that comes the effort for a court for that territory, the movement being accentuated by the fact that Wilson is he home of Judge H. G. Connor, the judge of the Eastern Carolina district. However, he is understood to be taking no sides in the matter whatever. There is a notable clause of the bill—the second section—which provides that the court shall be opened every day, thus assuring a clerk a revenue of $5 per day, without regard to what fees the business of the court may yield. It is believed here that this may have the effect of defeating the bill in that it is an admission that there is not business enough in the territory involved to make it worth the while of a clerk to attend to the duties without the special revenue that his daily fee for going through the form of opening a court would yield. If the new court should be established the judge would have the assignment of the counties under its jurisdiction.

The board of Moody church accepted Mr. Dixon's resignation today, to become effective June 1st.

The detailed statement of claims filed by the State Banking Superintendent Cheney today disclosed Tammany Hall as one of the depositors. The total claims against the bank as enumerated by Mr. Cheney are $6,158,408.

ACCUSED MEN IN JAIL.

Union Officials Held in Connection With Times Explosion.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 26.—John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Bridge & Strustural Iron Workers' Association; his brother, James B. McNamara, and Ortie McManigal, accused of activity in or knowledge of the blowing up of the Times newspaper plant last October, when 21 men were killed, are in the Los Angeles jail tonight. They are in separate cells surrounded by extra guards.

All three are charged with murder. Their arrival today in irons from Indianapolis and Chicago, signalizes the beginning of a desperate legal struggle. Thus far, however, no definite arrangements have been made for their defense. District Attorney J. D. Fredericks, who said yesterday that the State was ready to go to trial at once, announced that the formality of arraignment would now await the convenience of the defense.

The alleged conspirators arrived at the jail from Pasadena in automobiles after running through two crowds, which, in their eagerness to get a glimpse of the prisoners, bore down more than a score of detectives and deputy sheriffs.

As James McNamara entered an automobile to be taken to jail he was seen by Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll, a San Francisco boarding house keeper with whom J. B. Bryce stayed before the Times explosion.

James McNamara, according to detectives, is held as Bryce, the man alleged to have laid the infernal machines that blew up the newspaper plant.

Mrs. Ingersoll peered into the face of McNamara as he entered the machine. The man was shackled to an officer, but he kept his unbound hand before his face. In spite of this, Mrs. Ingersoll declared afterward that he was Bryce.

No one, however, could have identified him as Bryce from the printed descriptions sent out after the indictments were found by the grand jury. Thin and pale, he looked little like the 160 pound man described in the official circles.

Mrs. Ingersoll will again confront him in jail tomorrow.

At no time was there evident that the last sign of anger on the part of the crowds, or of a disposition to justify the apparent fear of the officers that an attempt might be made to rescue the prisoners.

AFFAIRS IN WHITEVILLE.

Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy Cordially Received—The Strawberry Outlook.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., April 26.—Hon. John D. Bellamy, of Wilmington, spent last night in Whiteville and no visitor to our town was ever more heartily welcomed or the recipient of greater attention. He was all the while surrounded by friends and admirers, and at night a number of our leading citizens called upon him at the Columbut Hotel. Mr. Bellamy was always strong in Columbus county, for our people look upon him as one of the ablest and best men in the South. In answer to a direct question if he could not be prevailed upon to enter the race for Congress again, Mr. Bellamy stated that while he highly appreciated the compliment conveyed in the inquiry, he had made up his mind to retire from active public life. That to serve again in Congress would be at the sacrifice of his legal business, which he could not afford. Besides, he was reaching that time in life where he preferred the quietude of his home.

The court was employed all day yesterday trying a negro divorce case, in which nearly the entire bar is employed on one side or the other.

The cold snap, it is feared, has done more injury to crops than at first thought. While strawberries are not materially injured, the fruit nipped by frost does not bring as good prices as those that sold before the freeze. We heard of one large field of cotton that was up and had been run around, but the frost has killed it out badly and it is thought the crop must be planted over again. There has been a scarcity of berry pickers, but several train loads of hands have recently been brought in from other points. The concensus of opinion is that all the strawberries will be made that can be gathered and sold before the market breaks by other rival sections beginning to ship.

MAYOR GAYNOR WITNESS.

Tells About Crime Conditions in New York City.

New York, April 26.—Appearing by request, but not under subpoena, Mayor Gaynor was the chief witness today before the special grand jury that is investigating crime conditions in New York. He explained recent changes he has made in police methods which have been blamed for the so-called demoralization of that department and it is understood that he defended the removal of plain clothes men from precinct duty, on the ground that this act had abolished the "graft formerly demanded of saloon keepers by such officers."

Previous to appearing before the grand jury the mayor conferred with District Attorney Whitman and it was reported that he had clashed with that official.

New York, April 26.—Samuel Daniels' "Delia," printed in London in 1592, and sold to George D. Smith, realized the top-notch price of $3,800 at the continuation of the sale of the Hoe library tonight. Walter L. Hill, of Chicago, purchased Robinson Crusoe, printed in three volumes, in 1720, and bound in Red Morocco, for $3,300. Today's sales aggregated $49,347, bringing the total to date up to $358,850.

Newport News, Va., April 26.—Senator Newlands, of Nevada, and Dr. Robert C. Ogden, of New York, were the principal speakers at the annual commencement of the Hampton Normal & Agricultural Institute today. Many distinguished visitors from the North and South were in attendance, a party coming by special train from Brooklyn with Mrs. Charles W. Ide, of Brooklyn.

Mexico City, April 26.—Lerdo, but a few minutes ride on an electric line from Torreon, was captured today by a band of 300 rebels, according to a special dispatch to El Nacional. The authorities fled and the rebels set fire to the public buildings.

THE NEWS AT RALEIGH.

Damage Suit on Trial—Remarkable Family—Federal Courts.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 26.—The Wake Superior Court devoted today to the trial of the damage suit of Pinkie Phillips vs. The City of Raleigh in which $5,000 is demanded for injuries sustained through having fallen into a deep drain at the corner of Bloodworth and Worth streets. The plaintiff is an aged negro woman, highly respected, and her case has been pending for quite a while. There was a mistrial at the October term of court, the jury having failed to agree on a verdict.

Wake and Johnston counties join in a family record that shows the decided absence of anything like race suicide at least so far as the record of one family is concerned. It is the case of the descendants of Appleton Richardson, who was born in Johnston county, close to the Wake line in the year 1800, and spent his life in Wake, living until the year 1873, when he died, leaving 20 children, 86 grandchildren and 186 great-grandchildren. There are now known to be 1,056 direct descendants of this man. He was an extensive land and slave owner and quite a number of tracts of land in both counties that were owned by him are still in the hands of descendants. His people, too, have been and are still prominent. Dr. William E. Richardson, his grandson, was elected a Democratic member of the first State Legislature after the reconstruction. Rev. N. R. Richardson is an honored member of the North Carolina Methodist Conference. Others have been and are planters, merchants, doctors, lawyers, ministers, and in a number of other honorable avocations.

The legal profession and the people generally in North Carolina are vitally interested in the changes made by the Federal Judiciary Act, ratified March 3rd and now officially promulgated. One of the most material changes is that the jurisdiction of the Federal court in cases depending on diverse citizenship of the parties is raised to $3,000 from $2,000 in the amount involved. Another is that cases can not be removed from the State to the Federal court, must involve $3,000 instead of $2,000. Action between railroads and employes involving damages prior to the April, 1908 law cannot be removed. Also the act abolishes the circuit court, leaving only the district court in North Carolina. The act is effective in January, 1912.

TAKE DOWN U. S. FLAG.

Government Will Not Protest Against Action of Dutch.

Manila, P. I., April 27.—Delayed advices received here via Jolo report that the Dutch have taken possesion of Palmas Island, sixty miles southeast of Mindanao, lowered the United States colors and substituted the flag of Holland.

It is understood here that Washington does not intend to protest against the action of the Dutch, the United States government regarding the island as valueless.

Washington, April 26.—A little head native Filipino found proudly wearing a cap, evidently a gift of a Dutch captain, precipitated the issue of sovereignty over the Palmas Islands about two years ago, and the State Department hurried and consulted its maps and records, but the whole question died almost at its inception, for want of interest. The Washington government has no particular desire for the Palmas group, although it has been deemed a part of the Philippine archipelago. Down where the Palmas natives live without an American between them there is nothing to interest the government and neither the United States nor Holland has ever felt called upon to leave anybody in authority on Palmas domain. Probably half a hundred Filipinos constitute the entire Palmas population.

SOUTHERN METHODIST CHURCH.

Board of Church Extension Meets in Richmond Today.

Richmond, Va., April 26.—All of the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, are expected to be present at the meeting of the Board of Church Extension, which is to begin its session in Centenary church here tomorrow. The board is composed of about 25 members, including ministers and laymen as well as the bishops. The general subject it will consider, of course, is the matter of furthering the growth of the Southern Methodist church.

Bluefield, W. Va., April 26.—Town Marshal Music and Mayor Hoskins, of Matewan, W. Va., were shot and killed at Red Jacket today by Thomas Chafin, a miner, during a quarrel. Chafin and a companion escaped on horse back. A posse is in pursuit.

WORRY AND HURRY

are the two greatest foes to digestion—and very few people reach the age of forty without falling a victim to indigestion in some form or other.

Undigested food is a serious menace to health and is the cause of headaches, sleeplessness, flatulency, gas and distress in the stomach, despondency, nervousness, bad breath and impure blood.

In such cases Vinol has a marked beneficial result. It seems to go directly to the seat of trouble, strengthens and tones up the tired, weakened nerves of the stomach, enabling one to digest with ease the very foods that once caused distress.

A case has just come to our attention in Barre, Vt., Mr. Samuel Wheeler suffered with a stomach trouble for years and had taken all kinds of medicines without relief, and at last found a cure in Vinol. He says Vinol was worth five dollars a bottle to him. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

If you suffer from any form of stomach trouble, try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

GEN. CARR TO METHODISTS.

Charms Audience in Address in Washington Church Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., April 26.—General Julian Carr made those North Carolinians who heard his speech this morning in Mount Vernon Methodist church, advocating the erection of a Methodist Tabernacle in Washington, commensurate with Southern Methodism proud of North Carolina. The entire audience was charmed by his eloquent utterances and his deliverance was no less strong in argument than beautiful in diction. The General Board of Church Extension unanimously resolved to have his address published in every church paper in Southern Methodism.

ICE! ICE!! ICE!!!
-:-YES-:-
ICE! ICE!! and ICE!!!

One might almost be led to believe that this community had never seen Pure Ice until this good year 1911.

A great man once said "there is nothing new under the sun" and this is so to a great extent when it comes to the manufacture of ice.

Now, as a matter of fact, The Independent Ice Company has been for ten years and is still making as pure, as clean, as healthful to use ice as can be found in all North Carolina. We defy anyone to prove to the contrary. Our prices are as low as the lowest. We give full guaranteed weight. Our service is the best Wilmington ever had. We have a polite, accommodating corps of officials who will thank any one to report any act of neglect or discourtesy on the part of our wagon drivers or helpers.

Do the right thing for yourselves and for ourselves by taking ice from the old reliable.

THE INDEPENDENT ICE CO.

TURPOILINE
CHEAPER THAN TURPENTINE

It is an odorless mineral product, which possesses great solvent power for paints and varnishes, has the requisite high flash for working and the clean evaporation which leaves the coating in perfect condition.

TURPOILINE makes a free flowing varnish, free from bloom. It flat colors better than turpentine.

TURPOILINE is thorough uniform; you can be assured of receiving the same product all the time.

TURPOILINE costs less and works well.

TURPOLINE is the most satisfactory product on the market for the paint and varnish man.

Try TURPOILINE. One thorough trial will convince you.
